The versatility challenge will consist of three different classes: 1) The trail trial itself, 2) a trail class held inside the main ring, and 3) an equitation class (w/t/c) to show that you and your horse also have what it takes in the ring (proper show apparel not required).

Scores will be added together from all 3 classes and the best total score will win for that division. Champion and Reserve Champion will be placed for all divisions.
